MWINGI NATIONAL RESERVE

The Last Frontier

INTRODUCTION

Bordering Meru and Kora National Parks, Mwingi National Reserve remains remote, hot and dry and utterly unspoiled just like her neighbors. The reserve is classified as a wilderness activity zone that allows for fly camping, fishing, camel and horseback safaris for the intrepid visitor as opportunities for traditional game viewing are extremely limited. Wildlife populations are fairly low, but hippo, crocodile, buffalo and warthog are present.
